Absentee bids will be handled by a member of the PDS community who bids on your behalf up to the amount you have specified on your bid. We do not open the bidding with your bid. We bid against the audience or participant at the stated increases and within the limit you specify as though we were you. These bids are treated fairly and confidentially.

If two bids are received on the same item from different people, the bidding will open at the next logical raise above the lower bids. If two absentee bids are received in the same amount on the same item, the first one received will take precedence.

No absentee bids will be accepted for under $25.00. Mailed and faxed absentee bids must be received by 4:00 p.m. on Friday, April 1st, 2011. Hand-delivered absentee bids must be received one-half hour prior to the start of sale (5:30 p.m.) All absentee bids are subject to the terms and conditions of the applicable auction.

If you have submitted an absentee bid and find you will be present at the time of the sale, please notify the cashier's desk so that your absentee bid can be canceled.

If you are a successful absentee bidder, you will be notified by phone or mail at the beginning of the week following the sale. We will expect immediate payment and arrangements for pick-up or shipping of your item(s). All items not paid for within two weeks of auction will be resold. Poughkeepsie Day School is not responsible for errors on bid sheets.

Shipping costs will be paid by the buyer.

A celebrity with a high-profile position as executive chef at New York bistro Les Halles, and bestselling author of Kitchen Confidential and A Cook's Tour, Bourdain doesn't intend to break new ground. The dishes do exactly as the subtitle notes and include such solid classic fare as Onion Soup Les Halles, Steak au Poivre, Boeuf Bourguignon, Coq au Vin and Chocolate Mousse. Nearly all recipes are within reach of competent home cooks, and those that are more complicated or time-consuming like Bouillabaisse, Cassoulet and Roulade of Wild Pheasant are thoroughly spelled out to calm most jitters. Foie gras, duck fat and dark veal stock are frequent components, but a list of suppliers makes just about every ingredient available. Even though many of the dishes can be found in other cookbooks, what sets this one apart is Bourdain's signature wise-ass attitude that pervades nearly every recipe, explanatory note and chapter introduction. Not for the faint of heart!
